DISPOSAL OF PERSONAL BELONGINGS (CLOTHING)

The decedent's personal clothing received by our firm when your loved one is taken into our care may be considered biohazardous. It is suggested by our firm that for health and safety reasons that these items be discarded of in an appropriate manner. The disposal of any biohazardous clothing and waste are done by a licensed hazardous waste disposal company specifically permitted to handle biohazardous waste, which operates in accordance with applicable federal, state and local regulations.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I, _____, bearing the relationship of _____ to _____ (name of deceased) hereby acknowledge that the personal clothing may be properly disposed of by the Funeral Home and further, we acknowledge that these items will not be returned to us.
